Elvis: The Early Years* featuring Scot Bruce Second Show Added!

Tickets On Sale Now!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MONTGOMERY, AL (Wednesday, July 15, 2009) Elvis is coming back in the building. Due to popular demand a second Elvis: the Early Years show featuring Scot Bruce has been added to the Alabama Shakespeare Festival schedule on Tuesday, August 18 at 7:30 p.m. The Monday, August 17 performance is completely sold out.

Tickets for this special benefit concert are $35 to $45 and are available through the ASF box office at 800.841.4273 or on line at www.asf.net . Tickets went on sale Tuesday, July 14 at 10 a.m.

Scot Bruce is internationally known has the greatest Elvis since Elvis. His amazing resemblance to Elvis Presley and his ability to sing and play like The King of Rock and Roll has entertained audiences from America to Japan.

CNN raved, “The closest they can come to Elvis in the flesh busting out Shake, Rattle and Roll is Scot Bruce.” The Montgomery Advertiser hailed Scot Bruce is “simply amazing!”

For this special show, Scot Bruce is backed by an outstanding four-piece on stage band playing classic Elvis tunes such as Jailhouse Rock, Love Me Tender, Burnin’ Love, Blue Suede Shows, Suspicious Minds and much more.

In the past three years, the Scot Bruce/ASF benefit concerts have raised over $100,000 for the Alabama Shakespeare Festival.

The Alabama Shakespeare Festival is among the largest Shakespeare theatres in the world. Designated as The State Theatre of Alabama, ASF has been located in Montgomery since 1985 when it moved from Anniston as a result of Mr. and Mrs. Wynton M. Blount’s gift of a performing arts complex set in the 250-acre Wynton M. Blount Cultural Park.

This program/project has been made possible by grants from the Alabama State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts.
